Wireless Charging Compatibility
With Mujjo's Echelon case, you can enjoy the modern convenience of wireless charging without ever needing to remove the case. Designed with precision, the case ensures your AirPods Pro are always ready and charged, providing a seamless power transfer that complements your on-the-go lifestyle.

Superior Ecco Leather Craftsmanship
Crafted from the finest Eco leather and adhering to Gold-rated environmental standards, the Echelon case exudes a sophistication that matures over time. The high-quality, vegetable-tanned leather develops a rich patina that tells the unique story of your journey, lending character and distinction to your AirPods Pro.

Thoughtful Design for Ease of Use
Experience a case that addresses every detail with Mujjo's Echelon. From the front LED cut-out for charge indication to the moulded side button for easy pairing, this case ensures that every function of your AirPods Pro is accessible. A strategically placed cutout at the base ensures your sound alerts remain crystal clear, all while providing effortless access to your earbuds.

Secure and Customizable Attachment
Never worry about misplacing your AirPods with the Echelon´s robust attachment clip, designed for attachment to keys, bags, or any convenient object. For added personalization and security, the lateral opening is perfect for lanyard attachment, ensuring that your AirPods Pro stay within arm's reach, safely and stylishly.

Precision Fit for AirPods Pro
The Mujjo Echelon case is meticulously crafted to accommodate the AirPods Pro (1st & 2nd generation) cases snugly and securely. Encase your earbuds in a protective layer that not only complements their design but also enhances their functionality, affording you peace of mind with every use.
