Robust Construction with Non-Skid Feet
Made with T6 aircraft-grade aluminium, the Posto 2 is lightweight and highly durable. It has superior-quality Japanese micro-suction feet that firmly grip any surface without leaving residue or marks behind.

Attractive, Space-Saving Design
With its sleek, clean lines, the Posto 2 complements any desktop setting — at home, in the office, or studio. Its built-in wire wrap keeps your cables organized, ensuring your workstation remains spacious and clutter-free.

Created to Hold All Types of Headphones and Headsets
Whether you have large, professional-grade headphones or compact headsets, Posto 2 can accommodate them. Its design accounts for all weights and sizes, ensuring your headphones and headsets are neatly stowed away when unused.

Protects Your Headphones from Dirt and Damage
Posto 2 guards against unintentional spills, dust, and food particles by keeping your headphones elevated. It's the ideal solution for maintaining the pristine condition of your headphones and headsets.

Quick and Effortless Assembly
Assembling Posto 2 is a breeze. It has three parts that snap together in under 30 seconds — no tools are required. Making it a fantastic, easy-to-use addition to your desktop.
