Baseus

Baseus Pencil Silicon holder - Red

The Baseus Pencil Silicon holder is a functional set of connecting cap cover and support stand for your Apple Pencil. It is made of high-quality soft silicon, which offers ultimate protection of your Apple pen tip.

It will ensure that your apple pencil is kept safe and all times.?

Recess design allows for hand horizontal placement
The support stand has a dual side, the upper side with a slot to hold the pen tightly to prevent its arbitrary slip, while the backside stores the replacement tip and charging adapter

Dustproof design
Made of high-quality silicon the pencil holder is free of dust buildup and this makes it easier to clean than ordinary silicon.

Excellent stability
The Stable placement from the silicon material provides a proper counterweight. The support stand is dual sided and the upside with a slot can hold the pen tightly to prevent its arbitrary slip, while the back side could store replacement tip and charging adapter

Silicon pencil cap
The cap case avoids the loss of cap during charging and you do not need to spend time on finding your cap anymore.
