- Premium aluminum construction with minimalist design
- Extra-long 2 m cable for flexible reach

USB?C to USB?C for modern devices, including Apple MacBook chargers
Built with USB?C connectors on both ends, AluCable plugs directly into today's laptops, tablets, phones, and USB?C chargers. It pairs perfectly with Apple MacBook chargers and other USB?C power adapters, so you can charge and sync without dongles or adapters.

Fast charging support for quicker top-ups
Spend less time tethered to the outlet. AluCable supports fast charging with compatible USB?C power adapters and devices, delivering efficient power so you can get back to work, play, or travel faster.

480 Mbps data transfer via USB 2.0
Move photos, videos, and files at up to 480 Mbps. The USB 2.0 standard ensures dependable syncing and tethering performance for everyday tasks without compromising on stability.

Premium aluminum construction with minimalist design
Engineered from high-quality components, AluCable features refined aluminum connector housings and a clean, minimalist aesthetic. It's made to look great on your desk and stand up to daily wear in your bag.

Extra-long 2 m cable for flexible reach
Enjoy comfortable charging and syncing whether you're on the sofa, at your workstation, or reaching a wall outlet. The 2 m length gives you the freedom to use your device while it powers up.
