UAG Apple iPhone 16e Essential Armor MgSf - Ash

Introducing the Urban Armor Gear Apple iPhone 16e Essential Armor MgSf Ash - the ultimate protection for your iPhone that combines military-grade durability with sleek design. This case is engineered to safeguard your device against drops, impacts, and everyday wear and tear while maintaining a slim profile.

- Military-grade drop protection
- Lightweight MagSafe compatible design
- Precision-cut access to all ports and buttons
- Scratch-resistant screen surround
- Ash color for a tactical look

Military-Grade Drop Protection
The Essential Armor case features Urban Armor Gear's patented impact-resistant technology, ensuring your iPhone 16e survives drops and falls from impressive heights. Tested to meet or exceed military drop-test standards (MIL-STD 810G 516.6), this case offers peace of mind for even the most adventurous users.

Lightweight MagSafe Compatible Design
Despite its robust protection, the Essential Armor case maintains a slim profile that won't add unnecessary bulk to your iPhone. The case is fully compatible with MagSafe accessories, allowing for seamless wireless charging and attachment of magnetic accessories without compromising protection.

Precision-Cut Access
Every port, button, and feature of your iPhone 16e remains fully accessible thanks to the precisely engineered cutouts of the Essential Armor case. Enjoy unhindered use of your device's functions while keeping it fully protected.

Scratch-Resistant Screen Surround
The raised edges around the screen provide an extra layer of protection, keeping your display safe from scratches when placed face-down on surfaces. This design element ensures your iPhone's most vulnerable component stays pristine.

Ash Colour Tactical Look
The Essential Armor case comes in a stylish Ash color, giving your iPhone a rugged, tactical appearance. This unique color option sets your device apart while maintaining a professional and sophisticated look.
