Luxury Vegan Leather Material
The Twelve South DeskPad is made from high-quality vegan leather, emulating genuine leather's richness without animal products. This provides an elevated, luxurious feel to your work desk, blending utility and elegance perfectly.

Extra Width for Extended Keyboard & Pointing Device
Beyond accommodating your MacBook, this pad is designed with extra width to handle extended keyboards. There's ample space for smooth and unrestricted use of your favourite pointing device, ranging from mouse to trackballs.

Warm Textured Surface for Comfort & Precision Mousing
A cold, hard desk can be taxing on the wrists. The DeskPad solves this issue, offering a cushiony, warm surface that's more comfortable for long work stretches. In addition, the textured surface of the DeskPad supports precise mouse movements, making every action - navigating a spreadsheet or fine-tuning a design, effortless and accurate.

Available in Black and Dove Grey
The DeskPad comes in classic Black, ideal for dark wood or glass desks, and Dove Grey for a subtler contrast on white desks. Select the colour that best suits your workspace and enhances its aesthetic.

Enhances and Protects Desk
The DeskPad not only adds style and comfort to your workspace but also safeguards the surface of your desk. It serves as a protective layer, avoiding scratches and stains that may damage your desk over time.
