Bluelounge Cable Drop - Off White

Keeping your cables neatly managed and readily accessible has never been easier with the Bluelounge Cable Drop. This innovative solution organizes all your loose wires discreetly while complementing any decor. Whether at your workspace or home, Cable Drop ensures you never have to search for or untangle your cables again.

- Self-adhesive for quick installation
- Prevents cables from dropping
- Blends in with your decor
- Versatile usage
- Convenient pack of 6

Self-adhesive for quick installation
The Cable Drop comes with a self-adhesive backing that makes setting up your cable management system a snap. Peel off the protective layer and press the Cable Drop onto any clean, smooth surface for an instant hold. Whether beside your bed, at your desk, or in the living room, installation is hassle-free and requires no tools.

Prevents cables from dropping
Every time you unplug your device, the Cable Drop ensures that your cords stay in place, preventing them from slipping to the floor. This design saves you from the frustration of searching for cables that have slid behind furniture or become tangled on the floor, allowing for a safer and more organized space.

Blends in with your decor
With its sleek white design, the Cable Drop is made to integrate with any décor seamlessly. Whether you aim to preserve the look of your space or make a statement, the colour and design of the Cable Drops are chosen to be both functional and stylish, ensuring that they do more than manage cables—they enhance the space they're in.

Versatile usage
Cable Drops aren't just for desks. They are versatile enough for furniture, walls, or wherever you need to guide and secure cables. Keeping your cables routed exactly where you need them helps create a clutter-free environment wherever you use them.

Convenient pack of 6
Offered in a convenient pack of six, these Cable Drops can be strategically placed around your home or office, allowing you to organize multiple areas readily. Whether for personal use, professional setups, or tech-savvy individuals, having a six-pack ensures that you always have a Cable Drop handy when needed.
