Crafted From Premium Titanium Alloy
Made with Aircraft-Grade 2 Titanium, this watch band is waterproof, lightweight, and exceptionally strong. Durability meets elegance in a band built to withstand demanding workouts and daily routines, ensuring a secure fit to your wrist day in and day out.

Diamond-Like Carbon (DLC) Coating
Enhance your Apple Watch Ultra with the elevated aesthetics of a DLC coating that promises a sleek, polished look and added resilience against scratches and wear (specific to the WB49-101TI model). This cutting-edge finish looks refined and protects your band for years to come.

Seamless Comfort & Style
Experience a band that feels as good as it looks. The Just Mobile Titanium Watch Band seamlessly wraps around your wrist, offering a comfortable fit without sacrificing elegance. Its sleek and contemporary design perfectly complements your Apple Watch Ultra, adding a touch of class to any attire.

Precision Compatibility
Tailored precisely for the Apple Watch Ultra series, this titanium band perfectly fits the original and Series 2 models. The connectors are made of high-grade 316L stainless steel, ensuring a precise and secure integration with your watch.

Effortless Adjustment and Assembly
Adjusting to your wrist size has never been easier. The Just Mobile Titanium Watch Band has an adjustable tool to ensure a perfect fit for wrists ranging from 160mm to 237mm. Plus, it's made to be easily attached or detached from your Apple Watch, providing convenience and flexibility.
