KeyBudz Hyperfoam Comfort Series for Airpods Pro 3rd Gen - Large - Black

KeyBudz HyperFoam ear tips are designed to give your AirPods Pro 3 Generation is a softer, more secure and more isolated fit. The heat adaptive foam gently expands to the shape of your ear, helping reduce outside noise while supporting clear highs, deep lows and longer listening comfort.

- Heat adaptive foam for a personalised fit
- Patented ComfortCore for soft in-ear comfort
- Improved noise isolation and sound clarity
- SecureGrip coating helps keep AirPods 3rd Gen in place
- Three sizes included for the right fit

Heat adaptive foam for a personalised fit
HyperFoam responds to body heat and gently expands inside the ear. This helps create a soft, tailored fit that feels comfortable during longer listening sessions while forming a better seal against outside noise.

Patented ComfortCore for soft in-ear comfort
The patented ComfortCore uses a flexible audio tube made from German KRAIBURG thermoplastic elastomer. It is designed to contour comfortably to the inner ear while maintaining the acoustic seal needed for consistent sound performance.

Improved noise isolation and sound clarity
A better seal helps reduce ambient noise in everyday environments such as flights, offices, public transport and busy cafés. By limiting unwanted outside sound, HyperFoam helps your AirPods deliver cleaner highs, richer lows and a more focused listening experience.

SecureGrip coating helps keep AirPods Pro 3rd Gen in place
The SecureGrip anti-slip coating is designed to support a stable fit during active use. Whether you are commuting, working, walking or exercising, the ear tips help keep your AirPods comfortably and securely in place.

Three sizes included for the right fit
HyperFoam comes in small, medium and large sizes, making it easier to find the fit that works best for your ears. Choosing the correct size improves comfort, stability, noise isolation and overall sound quality.
