PLAUD AI Unlimited is an annual subscription for users who want unlimited transcription minutes and full access to PLAUDs most advanced AI tools. It is designed for busy professionals, frequent meetings, interviews, calls and continuous documentation, helping you capture, structure and retrieve information without limiting your workflow.

- Unlimited transcription minutes
- Full access to PLAUD AI features
- Advanced summaries and analysis
- Ask PLAUD across all your files
- Professional, community and custom templates

Unlimited transcription minutes

Record and transcribe as much as you need throughout the subscription period. PLAUD AI Unlimited is made for daily use, long meetings and demanding work periods where counting minutes would interrupt your process.

Full access to PLAUD AI features

Get access to PLAUDs complete AI feature set, designed to help turn recordings, notes and content into useful output. It supports a more efficient workflow from capture to summary, review and final documentation.

Advanced summaries and analysis

Create clear summaries tailored to different situations, including meetings, interviews, calls and reports. The AI helps identify key points, decisions, action items and important details, so you can review information faster and with better structure.

Ask PLAUD across all your files

Use Ask PLAUD to search through your saved content, find specific details, extract insights or format information into reports. This makes it easier to work across multiple recordings and documents without manually reviewing every file.

Professional, community and custom templates

Choose from more than 10,000 professional templates for common work scenarios, explore templates created by the PLAUD community or build your own formats for recurring tasks. Industry glossary support helps improve accuracy for technical terms in areas such as medical, legal and finance.
