- Conceals and manages cables
- Flame-resistant design
- Fits wide power strips
- No need to unplug devices
- Compact and sleek

Conceals and Manages Cables
Say goodbye to the unsightly jumble of wires and plugs. The CableBox Mini provides an easy and stylish solution to manage your cable mess. Place your power strip and associated messy cables inside, leading them through the slots on both ends, and instantly enjoy a cleaner, more organized space.

Flame-resistant Design
Safety is as crucial as aesthetics, and the CableBox Mini ensures both. Crafted from high-quality, flame-retardant plastic, this box is safe and adds a touch of elegance to your workspace, keeping it neat and hazard-free.

Fits Wide Power Strips
Designed to accommodate various power strip sizes, the CableBox Mini makes it easy to conceal different types of adapters and cords. The extra room inside ensures optimum storage capacity, making it versatile for all your cable management needs.

No Need to Unplug Devices
The ingenious design of the CableBox Mini lets you organize your cables without interrupting the power supply. No more hassle of unplugging devices; pack everything inside, and the job's done.

Compact and Sleek
With dimensions perfect for any space, the CableBox Mini doesn't compromise style or function. Its black finish complements any decor, hiding the cables and doubling as a chic accessory that enhances the look of your desk or entertainment area.
