Easy to open and close without cutting
Forget single-use zip ties. Pixi opens and closes in a snap, no tools required and no waste. Simply slide the lock to release, then reuse it again and again for sustainable, hassle-free organization.

Infinitely adjustable for a perfect fit every time
From slim cables to bulkier items, Pixi adapts on the fly. The sliding lock lets you fine-tune tension and length, so you always get a snug, tailored wrap without over-tightening.
