Easy-to-use plant capsules
Our plant capsules are easy to use, ensuring a hassle-free gardening experience. Just insert them into your Click and Grow Smart Garden and watch your chilli peppers thrive. It's a simple process that brings the beauty of gardening into your home with minimal effort.

Ideal for the Click and Grow Smart Garden
Specifically designed for compatibility with the Click and Grow Smart Garden Starter Kit, these refill capsules integrate seamlessly. They're essential for enthusiasts looking to expand their smart garden collection or replenish their existing setup.

Cultivate fresh Chili Peppers at home
Bring the heat to your kitchen with homegrown chilli peppers that add zest to your meals. These spicy delights enhance the flavour of your cooking and promote the body's ability to cope with heat and pain, thanks to their natural properties.

Perfect growing conditions
Your chilli pepper plants will love the sunny spots of your smart garden, encouraging them to ripen to perfection. The chilli peppers may take some time to mature fully with optimal growing conditions, but your patience will be amply rewarded with aromatic and piquant peppers.

Effortless gardening
Thanks to the advanced Smart Garden, cultivating your chilli peppers becomes effortless. Enjoy the benefits of home gardening without the traditional complexities and reap a bountiful harvest worth the wait.
