Rich in Vitamins and Antioxidants

Enjoy lettuce that's a cut above the rest. Grown in the comfort of your home, Click and Grow's Green Lettuce offers an abundance of Vitamin A and K and essential antioxidants. With up to three times more antioxidants than hydroponically-farmed lettuce and twice that of store-bought options, the Green Lettuce from your bright garden ensures that every bite contributes to your health.

100% Hassle-Free, Thriving Plant Growth

The Click and Grow indoor herb garden simplifies the art of gardening. Each smart refill pack ensures that your Green Lettuce seeds have the ideal environment to sprout and grow. Without the need to monitor water levels, nutrition, or lighting constantly, Click and Grow takes the guesswork out - leaving you to enjoy the experience of watching your greens flourish.

From Garden to Plate in Moments

Harvest fresh lettuce right from your kitchen. The Click and Grow Smart Garden Refill isn't just about easy cultivation; it's about bringing the farm to your fork with minimal effort. Whether preparing a crisp salad, topping a sandwich, or creating a gourmet dish, fresh, flavorful lettuce is always within arm's reach.

Optimized for High Antioxidant Yield

Through precise technology, our smart garden provides just the right temperature and lighting conditions to maximize the nutritional value of your lettuce. Benefit from greens that have been nurtured to optimize their antioxidant levels, ensuring that each leaf contributes to your well-being.

Versatile Flavor for Culinary Creations

Don't be limited by store-bought options. Grow your own Green Lettuce and experiment with flavours and textures in your cooking. Fresh, tender, and rich in flavour, Green Lettuce from your Click and Grow indoor garden takes meals from good to gourmet.
