- High-Definition 4K Display
- Active Chipset for Plug and Play Conveniences
- Ultra-Durable Construction
- Functional and Innovative Design
- 2-Year Warranty with Reliable Connectivity

High-Definition 4K Display
The ALOGIC Ultra Mini DisplayPort to HDMI Active Cable is meticulously designed to deliver a maximum resolution of 4K@60Hz, offering four times the resolution of Full HD. With HDMI 2.0 compatibility, it supports ultra-high-definition 4K@60Hz and a bandwidth of up to 18Gbps, making it perfect for high-resolution gaming and video editing and providing the ultimate cinematic experience.

Active Chipset for Plug and Play Conveniences
Featuring a built-in active chipset, this cable ensures compatibility with Mini DisplayPort and DisplayPort outputs that don't offer DP++ support, like the AMD Eyefinity video card, while still accommodating DP++ outputs. Enjoy the benefits of immediate connection without the need for drivers or software installations—it's as simple as plug and play.

Ultra-Durable Construction
ALOGIC's Ultra range symbolizes the pinnacle of craftsmanship, built from the finest materials to ensure extended durability. The cable core, reinforced by synthetic fibre and protected by a TPE jacket, stands up to all manners of wear and tear. The thermoplastic cable heads, complemented by a sturdy metal alloy housing, provide the utmost strain relief and longevity.

Functional and Innovative Design
This ALOGIC Ultra cable is thoughtfully designed with a user-friendly latch and an innovative easy-release button to ensure a secure, stable connection that's easy to unlock and manoeuvre, even in tight spots. The single-handed operation design is practical, making it easier to connect the components where space is at a premium.

2-Year Warranty with Reliable Connectivity
When you choose ALOGIC Ultra, you are backed by a robust 2-year warranty that reflects our confidence in the cable's reliable performance. With HDMI (male) as its output and Mini DisplayPort (male) as its input, seamless, enduring connectivity is guaranteed.
