Dual Full HD DisplayPort Outputs
Eliminate the inefficiency of single-screen multitasking and enjoy expansive visual real estate with dual Full HD 1080P@60Hz display support. For creatives and analysts alike, this means impeccable detail rendering for design, data visualization, and more—all thanks to the dual DisplayPort outputs that redefine your visual workspace.

Nine Essential Connectivity Ports
Say goodbye to port scarcity on modern laptops. The ALOGIC dock boasts nine ports that cater to all your peripherals—from essential USB accessories like keyboards and mice to printers, phones, and ethernet connections. Relish in the simplicity of plugging everything in, reducing desk clutter and enhancing productivity.

High-Speed Laptop Charging
Up to 85W of power delivery via USB-C keeps the laptop's battery full and productivity uninterrupted with MX2 Lite Dock, ensuring your device stays charged and ready for action. At the same time, you manage your most demanding tasks, making it an ideal companion throughout work sessions.

Portable, Premium Design
Designed with portability and durability, the MX2 Lite weighs just 138 grams and prides itself on a space-saving form factor. Encased in a sleek space grey metal alloy, this dock is poised to accompany you anywhere—perfect for dynamic work environments and individuals on the move.

Crisp Full HD Clarity
Enjoy the brilliance of Full HD on two displays with the ALOGIC MX2 Lite. Whether editing images or finalizing design layouts, the dual output preserves the integrity of every pixel for a straightforward and productive viewing experience. See your work in a new light with crisp, high-definition clarity integral to focused and detail-oriented tasks.
