

Move between an upright monitor setup and a folded drawing-tablet position in seconds with the ALOGIC Aspekt Fold Stand. Built for the Aspekt 32-inch touchscreen, it delivers a stable, ergonomic working angle, cleaner cable routing, and a premium aluminium build that suits professional desks and studios.

- Switch between upright and folded-flat positions in seconds
- Comfortable ergonomic height for everyday work
- Transforms your Aspekt 32-inch monitor into a desk-ready drawing tablet
- Integrated magnetic cable management for a cleaner workspace
- Premium aluminium construction with quick, screw-free mounting

Switch between upright and folded-flat positions in seconds

The stand is designed to let you change your setup quickly depending on the task. Keep the monitor upright for everyday productivity, then fold it down when you want a lower, more hands-on working position, without needing tools or a complicated adjustment process.

Comfortable ergonomic height for everyday work

In the upright position, the monitor sits 35 cm above the desk, creating a comfortable viewing height for long sessions. This makes it well suited for office work, editing, and general use where posture and screen positioning matter.

Transforms your Aspekt 32-inch monitor into a desk-ready drawing tablet

Fold the monitor down to rest closer to the desk and Aspekt Touch becomes a large-format drawing surface. The angle is intended to support extended creative sessions, giving you a stable, tablet-like working position for sketching and detailed on-screen interaction.

Integrated magnetic cable management for a cleaner workspace

Cable management is built into the stand to keep your workspace tidy. Magnetic cable holders guide and bundle your monitor cables into a single, organised run that stays naturally hidden behind the display.

Premium aluminium construction with quick, screw-free mounting

Made from a durable aluminium alloy with supporting materials for strength, the stand is built to match the quality of the Aspekt Touch monitor. Setup is fast: the monitor snaps into the custom mount without mounting screws, and detaching it only requires pressing a button.
