

The Satechi USB-C adapter is here to bridge the gap between the future and the present. The perfect solution for the new phase of USB-C ports, this sleek and compact adapter helps you continue using your current USB devices without a hassle. Thanks to its aluminium design, it harmoniously complements Apple computers and accessories but is compatible with any device having a USB-C port.

- Enhanced compatibility
- Beautiful design
- Compact size
- Effective speed
- Portable weight

Enhanced Compatibility

This adapter's key feature is its ability to convert a USB-C port into a standard USB 3.0 port. It makes your new device compatible with your existing USB appliances - a truly invaluable feature in today's technology sphere.

Beautiful Design

Donned in an elegant aluminium finish, this adapter stylishly fits in with your Apple computers and accessories. It offers a smooth bridge between your device and accessory, ensuring no eyesore is created from a clash of design.

Compact Size

The USB-C adapter is thoughtfully designed to be small and compact, making it a fitting companion for all your journeys. It easily slips into your purse, backpack, or laptop bag, ensuring that convenience is always at your fingertips.

Effective Speed

Speed matters! And this adapter understands it well. With a USB 3.0 port, it ensures up to 5 Gbps of data transfer speed, providing you a seamless and efficient experience.

Portable Weight

Feasibly portable, this adapter weighs a mere 10g. Such a lightweight design eliminates the burden of carrying any extra weight, making it your perfect travel accomplice.
