Memory foam protection for shock absorbency
The Pipetto Ultra Lite MacBook sleeve is constructed with 5 mm closed-cell memory foam, carefully engineered to absorb shocks and impacts from daily use and travel. This dense padding helps protect your MacBook from drops, bumps and pressure in your bag, providing an extra safety layer without adding unnecessary bulk.

Water resistant ripstop fabric and zip for 360° protection
Externally, the sleeve is made from hard-wearing ripstop fabric that is both water resistant and tear resistant. Combined with a water resistant zip, it offers 360° protection against light rain, splashes and everyday wear. Your MacBook remains shielded from the elements, making this sleeve ideal for commuting, office use and travel.

Ultra-soft faux fur lining to prevent scratches and dust
Inside, an ultra-soft faux fur lining cradles your MacBook and protects its aluminium body from scratches, scuffs, dust and dirt. The gentle inner surface reduces friction when inserting or removing your device, keeping it looking as pristine as the day you bought it.

Ultra-lite, slim design that fits easily into your bag
Designed to be ultra-lite and slim, this sleeve adds protection without adding weight. It is easy to slip into your backpack, tote, messenger bag or briefcase, and just as comfortable to carry on its own. The minimalist profile makes it perfect for users who want effective protection with a clean, understated look.

Perfect fit and compatibility for 13" MacBook models
This Pipetto sleeve is tailored for a snug, secure fit. It is a perfect fit for 13-inch MacBook Pro models (2016, 2017, 2018, 2019) and compatible with 13-inch MacBook Air models (2017, 2018, 2019).
