22 L capacity for daily essentials
With a 22 L capacity, this backpack offers practical space for the items you need throughout the day. It is well suited for carrying work essentials, gym gear, travel accessories or personal items without feeling oversized.

Dual-strap backpack carry
The dual-strap design provides a balanced and comfortable way to carry your gear. It is ideal for hands-free use during commutes, airport travel, city movement or outdoor activities.

Dryout design for active use
The Dryout backpack is made for people who need dependable storage during busy and changing conditions. Its practical design helps keep your essentials organised and ready when you are on the move.

Clean black finish
The black colour gives the backpack a versatile and professional look. It pairs easily with workwear, travel gear and casual everyday outfits, making it suitable for both business and leisure use.

Built for commuting, travel and everyday routines
Whether you are heading to work, travelling for the weekend or moving between daily activities, the Dryout 22L backpack is designed to support an active lifestyle with dependable storage and easy carry comfort.
