Custom-fit for Everki Backpack Models

The Shield rain cover is tailored to conform perfectly to the series of Everki backpacks, including Atlas (EKP121/EKP121S15), Versa (EKP127), Flight (EKP119), and Glide (EKP129). It envelops the entire backpack, ensuring comprehensive protection from external elements.

Easy to Attach and Detach

This rain cover is designed for effortless usage. You can easily stretch it over your backpack for quick protection and remove it with the same ease. The convenience of attaching and detaching the Everki Shield enhances your experience, especially when facing unexpected weather changes.

Water-Repellant Material

Crafted from high-quality, water-repellant material, the Shield rain cover promises to keep the contents of your backpack dry in rain, snow, or dust. The cover creates a reliable barrier against moisture, guarding your tech and essentials without fail.

Lightweight and Portable

At a mere 0.11 kg, the Shield rain cover is an accessory that won't add significant weight to your carry. Its compact and foldable design means you can tuck it away in your backpack's side pocket, making it an easily accessible travel companion that's there when you need it.

Lifetime Warranty Satisfaction

Everki's confidence in its products is boldly underscored by a Limited Lifetime Warranty, which covers manufacturing defects throughout the life of the product. With Everki, you are not just purchasing a rain cover; you are investing in assurance for your gear.
