- Covers the fire pit to contain sparks and calm embers
- Let's you head indoors without unnecessary waiting
- Gives you more control over the final stage of your fire
- A practical finishing step for relaxed outdoor evenings

Designed to help end your fire safely and confidently

The Closer is made for the moment when the fire has done its job, but the evening is over. Instead of waiting and wondering when it is safe to leave, you can close off the fire pit in a simple and controlled way. It brings reassurance to the end of the night and helps you finish your outdoor gathering with confidence.

Covers the fire pit to contain sparks and calm embers

By placing the Closer over the fire pit, you create a physical cover that helps keep sparks contained and glowing embers under control. This makes the fire easier to manage once the flames have settled and helps reduce the uncertainty that often comes at the end of an evening outdoors.

Let's you head indoors without unnecessary waiting

A fire can be enjoyable right up until the moment you are ready to go inside. The Closer helps remove the need to keep checking back or stay outside longer than you want to. It gives you a more convenient and practical way to wrap up the evening, so you can head in and relax.

Gives you more control over the final stage of your fire

The final part of managing a fire is just as important as lighting it. The Closer gives you a straightforward way to handle that last step properly. It is designed for people who enjoy outdoor fire moments but also want a clear and easy way to bring them to a close.

A practical finishing step for relaxed outdoor evenings

Whether you are ending a quiet evening outside or finishing a longer gathering with friends and family, the Closer fits naturally into the routine. It supports a calmer, more organised ending to the night and helps you leave your fire pit with greater peace of mind.
