Winner of The Innovation Award

The MAUS Xtin Klein is not just another fire extinguisher; it's an award-winning innovation that has gained recognition for its exceptional firefighting abilities. At the prestigious Secours Expo in France 2021, MAUS Xtin Klein was lauded for presenting a fresh perspective on fire safety technology – making it a top choice for those who value cutting-edge solutions in emergency preparedness.

Maintenance-Free with Long Shelf Life

Simplify your fire safety measures with the MAUS Xtin Klein, designed to be reliably effective without the need for regular maintenance. This extinguisher boasts an impressive 6-year shelf life from the date of production, ensuring that you can count on it in case of an emergency, year after year.

Spotless Firefighting

Say goodbye to messy cleanup operations post-fire incidents. The MAUS Xtin Klein utilizes an active potassium-based formula that combats flames effectively without leaving any extinguishing residue behind. This innovative approach not only fights the fire but also preserves the integrity of your assets, saving you from additional damages.

Compact and Convenient

Weighing only 480 grams, the MAUS Xtin Klein is the embodiment of portability. Its small stature ensures that you can store and carry it with ease, whether it is in the glove compartment of your car or attached to the wall in your kitchen.

Reliable Certifications

Trust is paramount when it comes to fire safety, and the MAUS Xtin Klein stands by its reliability with certifications from RINA and BAM, and CE marking. These approvals underline the extinguisher's compliance with stringent safety standards, giving you peace of mind.
