

Make every charge and transfer effortless with ALOGIC's Ultra USB-A to USB-C Cable. Built for daily reliability and engineered for longevity, this compact 30 cm cable delivers fast charging, quick sync speeds and rugged durability in a sleek silver finish that fits any setup.

- Super Ultra-rugged construction
- Fast charging up to 3 A
- 480 Mbps data transfer
- Premium materials and finish
- Compact 30 cm length

Super Ultra-rugged construction

Engineered for real-world use, the Ultra cable is reinforced with synthetic fiber and finished with flexible double-braided nylon for superior resistance to wear and tear. A thermoplastic strain relief and robust metal alloy housings protect the connectors from bends and bumps, extending the cable's lifespan.

Fast charging up to 3 A

Power your USB-C devices quickly via any USB-A wall charger, power bank or computer. With support for up to 3 A current, you can top up phones, tablets and accessories efficiently without waiting around.

480 Mbps data transfer

Sync photos, videos, music and files at up to 480 Mbps over a reliable USB 2.0 connection. It's the simple, dependable way to move your data between devices without compromise.

Premium materials and finish

From the metal alloy connector housings to the TPE strain relief and double-braided nylon jacket, every component is selected for durability, flexibility and a refined look that matches modern devices.

Compact 30 cm length

The 30 cm length keeps your setup tidy and travel-friendly. Ideal for desktop docking, power banks and on-the-go charging where excess cable can get in the way.
