Baseus iPhone X/XS case - Red

Keep your iPhone X or XS protected without adding unnecessary bulk. The Baseus ultra-thin case combines lightweight PC material with a matte, fingerprint-resistant surface for a comfortable grip. Its translucent design lets your phone show through, while keeping ports and controls easy to reach.

- Ultra-thin, lightweight protection
- Matte, fingerprint-resistant finish
- Translucent design
- Easy to install and remove
- Easy access to ports and controls

Ultra-thin, lightweight protection
Enjoy a slim case that feels comfortable in your hand. Made from high-quality polycarbonate, it helps protect your iPhone against everyday impacts and abrasion without adding unnecessary weight.

Matte, fingerprint-resistant finish
Keep your case looking cleaner throughout the day. The matte surface resists fingerprints and has a soft feel for comfortable everyday handling.

Translucent design
Give your iPhone a refined finish without hiding its design completely. The translucent case offers an understated look, with Black, Red, Dark Blue and White colour options available.

Easy to install and remove
Fit the case when you need protection and remove it easily when you want to change it. Its straightforward design makes installation and removal simple.

Easy access to ports and controls
Use your iPhone’s everyday functions without removing the case. Accessible ports and controls let you connect a charging cable and operate your phone with the case in place.
