Soft, odourless liquid silicone
Made from the same grade of liquid silicone used in baby pacifiers, this case feels soft and silky in your hand. The material is odourless and comfortable to use every day.

Fingerprint and scratch resistance
The silicone surface helps resist fingerprints and scratches, keeping your case looking clean. Its wraparound design also helps protect your phone from everyday bumps and wear.

- Raised camera protection
- A raised edge around the camera helps protect the lenses from contact with surfaces when you set your phone down.

Slim, translucent design
Show the phone beneath the case while adding everyday protection. The translucent finish reveals your iPhone, and the snug fit keeps added bulk to a minimum.

Comfortable grip and responsive buttons
Curved edges make the case comfortable to hold. Soft silicone around the button areas makes pressing the controls easy while keeping them covered and protected.
