Genuine hand-burnished leather with a distinctive, premium finish
Each Twelve South Leather Case is crafted from genuine leather, with hand-burnished edges and corners for a rich, lived-in finish from the start. No two cases are exactly alike, and the leather develops a patina over time, giving each case its own character. The understated design works equally well with casual or formal styles.

Designed specifically for iPhone 7 Plus and iPhone 8 Plus
Made exclusively for iPhone 7 Plus and iPhone 8 Plus, this case offers a precise, secure fit. Carefully positioned cutouts provide easy access to the camera, ports, speakers and buttons. Its slim, form-fitting design adds protection without unnecessary bulk and slips easily into a pocket or bag.

Soft quilted microfiber lining helps protect your phone from scratches
The quilted microfiber lining cushions your phone and helps prevent scratches from dust or grit. It forms a soft barrier between your iPhone and the hard shell, helping protect the back and sides while adding a refined finishing touch inside the case.

Protective 5-sided recessed shell helps reduce everyday wear
Beneath the leather exterior, a 5-sided recessed shell wraps around the back and edges of your iPhone. It keeps the phone slightly recessed from contact surfaces to help reduce everyday wear and tear. The shell adds structure and impact resistance while maintaining a slim profile.

Available with or without external pockets for cards or cash
The Twelve South Leather Case comes in two styles: with or without external pockets. Choose the pocketed version to carry essential cards or some cash alongside your phone, or the version without pockets for a slimmer, more streamlined profile. Both versions offer the same leather quality, craftsmanship and protection.
