- Protection against impacts and abrasion
- Anti-fingerprint matte finish
- Easy to install and remove
- Easy access to ports and controls

Slim, lightweight design
Keep the slim feel of your iPhone X or XS with an ultra-thin case that adds minimal bulk. The translucent design lets your phone’s appearance show through while adding a subtle finish.

Protection against impacts and abrasion
Made from high-quality polycarbonate, the case helps protect your phone against everyday impacts and abrasion. Its lightweight construction balances protection with comfortable handling.

Anti-fingerprint matte finish
The matte surface helps resist fingerprints and feels soft and comfortable in your hand. It gives the case a clean, understated appearance without a glossy finish.

Easy to install and remove
Fit the case when you need protection and remove it easily when you want to change it. The straightforward design makes both installation and removal simple.

Easy access to ports and controls
Use your phone’s ports and controls without removing the case. The design keeps everyday functions accessible while your iPhone stays protected.
