Twelve South SurfacePad for iPhone X - Cognac Cognac

Twelve South SurfacePad for iPhone X is an ultra-thin genuine leather folio that protects the front and back of your phone with minimal bulk. Two card slots keep essentials close, while a built-in stand enables hands-free viewing. The cover also automatically wakes your iPhone when opened and puts it to sleep when closed.

- Ultra-thin genuine leather cover protects the front and back
- Two integrated card slots for your ID and bank card
- Built-in stand for hands-free viewing and FaceTime
- Automatic wake and sleep as you open and close the cover
- Secure adhesive attachment that leaves no residue on your iPhone X

Ultra-thin genuine leather protection
Lightweight and as thin as a credit card, SurfacePad adheres directly to your iPhone X. The leather folio covers the screen and glass back, helping protect them from everyday contact with keys, countertops and items in your bag. Its slim profile slips easily into a pocket or bag, while genuine leather gives it a refined look and feel.

Two card slots for everyday essentials
Two discreet slots inside the front cover hold cards such as your ID, bank card or transit card. Used alongside Apple Pay, they let you carry your daily essentials without a separate wallet.

Built-in stand for hands-free viewing and FaceTime
Flex the back of SurfacePad to form a stable viewing stand. Prop up your iPhone X to watch videos, make FaceTime calls, browse the web or follow recipes hands-free. The integrated stand provides a convenient viewing angle without extra bulk or complicated mechanisms.

Automatic wake and sleep
Open the cover and your iPhone X wakes instantly, ready to use. Close it and the phone goes to sleep, helping conserve battery power while the cover protects the screen.

Secure attachment with no sticky residue
SurfacePad attaches directly to the back of your iPhone X with a reusable micro-adhesive instead of a bulky plastic shell. It holds firmly during daily use and removes cleanly without leaving sticky residue or marks, keeping the folio securely attached without adding bulk.
