

Never struggle with cluttered cables or misplaced adapters again. The Twelve South PowerCord 3 m (White/Dune) combines a 30 W USB-C PD charger and a built-in 3 m cable into one seamless, stylish charging solution. Designed for flexibility and modern aesthetics, it brings Scandinavian simplicity and smart charging performance to any home or workspace.

- 3 m (10 ft) integrated cable + charger - Enjoy flexible device placement without the need for a bulky power brick.
- Flat braided nylon cable design - Premium, fabric-wrapped construction resists tangles and fraying.
- EU plug compatibility - works with all standard EU wall outlets; fixed prongs ensure a secure connection.
- Built-in safety protections – Shields your devices from overheating, overcurrent, and overcharging.
- Minimalist White/Dune colorway – Neutral tones complement any modern setup or Scandinavian-style interior.
- Compact, all-in-one design – No separate adapter or extra blocks to carry—just plug in and charge.

Flexible 3 m Reach

Say goodbye to short cables and hard-to-reach outlets. The extra-long 3 m PowerCord gives you complete freedom to charge across a desk, behind furniture, or anywhere in your workspace — without rearranging your setup.

Durable Flat Braided Cable

Crafted from high-quality, braided fabric, the PowerCord stays flexible and resists tangling or fraying. The soft-touch texture adds a refined feel while ensuring long-lasting durability for daily use at home, in the office, or on the go.

Smart Charging Technology

Powered by USB-C Power Delivery (PD 3.0) and Programmable Power Supply (PPS), the Twelve South PowerCord 30 W charger intelligently adjusts voltage and current for safe, efficient charging. Whether it's your smartphone, tablet, or lightweight laptop, every device receives optimal power without overheating.

Safe and Reliable

Engineered with premium components, the PowerCord offers built-in protection against overcurrent, overvoltage, and temperature spikes. Reinforced connectors and a robust internal structure ensure consistent, dependable performance day after day.

Designed for Modern Living

The White/Dune colorway reflects Twelve South's signature minimalist design — clean, neutral, and beautifully understated. Its soft tones and sleek silhouette blend effortlessly into Scandinavian-inspired interiors, elevating both form and function.
