Mujjo Wallet Leather Case for iPhone 16 Pro Max - Blue

The Mujjo Wallet Leather Case for iPhone 16 Pro Max—Blue combines Velore leather, everyday protection and space for your essential cards. A recycled aluminium camera bump and soft microfibre lining help protect your phone, while built-in magnets support MagSafe charging and accessories.

- Carry your essential cards with your iPhone
- Durable machined metal camera bump
- Premium leather that develops a distinctive patina
- Soft Japanese microfibre lining
- Enhanced MagSafe magnet strength for secure attachment and wireless charging
- Recycled materials and B Corp certification

Carry your essential cards with your iPhone
The case holds 2 to 3 bank, ID, or travel cards, helping you keep everyday essentials together and reduce the need for a separate wallet.

Durable machined metal camera bump
Made from recycled aluminium, the machined metal camera bump helps protect your iPhone's rear camera lenses and adds durability to the case.

Premium leather that develops a distinctive patina
Velore leather, sustainably tanned in the Netherlands, gives the case a rich, luxurious feel. Over time, it develops a unique patina that adds individual character.

Soft Japanese microfibre lining
A slim, lightweight Japanese microfibre lining cushions your iPhone inside the case. Made from recycled material, this exceptionally soft fabric has a satin-like finish and provides an extra layer of protection.

Enhanced MagSafe magnet strength
Built-in magnets provide a secure connection to MagSafe accessories, including desktop stands and car mounts. The case supports convenient MagSafe wireless charging and lets you attach your phone in landscape orientation on a compatible stand.

Recycled materials and B Corp certification
As a certified B Corp, Mujjo continues to work towards improving sustainability. These iPhone cases use recycled materials in the metal buttons, camera bump, microfibre lining and polycarbonate shell beneath the leather.
