2-in-1 removable magnetic design

This case is made of two parts that work together and separately. The inner shell is a slim, protective PC case with a hidden metal panel, giving you everyday drop and scratch protection without added bulk. When you need extra functionality, simply snap it into the magnetic leather folio to turn your iPhone into a refined wallet and carry solution. You can separate the two parts in seconds, so you always have the choice between a minimalist shell or a full wallet case.

Fully compatible with wireless charging and Apple Pay

Unlike many magnetic cases, the inner shell is engineered to work seamlessly with wireless charging, Apple Pay and other contactless payments, while still being magnetic. You can drop your iPhone XR onto any compatible wireless charger without removing the case, and tap to pay confidently at any terminal. The internal metal and magnets are precisely placed to avoid interfering with your iPhone's charging or NFC functions.

All-in-one leather wallet with card and cash storage

The leather folio is handcrafted from 100% genuine leather, giving it a premium feel and long-lasting durability. Inside, you'll find two card slots, a dedicated ID window and an internal pocket for extra cards, cash or receipts. This layout lets you replace your traditional wallet on busy days, commutes or nights out, keeping your essentials organised and in one place with your phone.

Works with magnetic car and wall mounts

The removable magnetic shell is designed to work with a wide range of magnetic mounts. Attach your iPhone XR quickly and securely to a magnetic car dashboard mount for navigation, or snap it onto a magnetic wall or desk mount for hands-free FaceTime and video watching. The built-in metal panel provides a strong, reliable hold, so you can position your phone exactly where you need it, when you need it.

Folds into a stable hands-free viewing stand

The rear fold in the leather folio allows the case to transform into a stable horizontal viewing stand. This makes it ideal for watching videos, following recipes, or making video calls, even on soft or unstable surfaces like a bed or train seat. The stand position is designed for comfort and stability, so you can enjoy hands-free viewing without constantly adjusting your phone.
