- Full-body protection with HyperCush technology
- Ultra-lightweight armor shell with hex cushioning
- Magnetic charging compatibility
- Enhanced functionality with oversized tactile buttons
- Military-grade drop protection (MIL-STD-810G 516.6)

Full-body protection with HyperCush technology
Wrap your Samsung S25 Ultra in a cocoon of safety with UAG's innovative HyperCush technology. This advanced impact protection system cushions your device from all angles, ensuring comprehensive defense against accidental drops and impacts. Experience peace of mind knowing your phone is shielded by a protective armor that doesn't compromise on style.

Ultra-lightweight armor shell with hex cushioning
UAG's commitment to protection doesn't mean added bulk. The Essential Armor case features an ultra-lightweight armor shell combined with a hex cushioning shock-absorbing soft core. This clever design provides maximum protection while maintaining a slim profile, allowing your S25 Ultra to slip easily into pockets and bags without losing its sleek appearance.

Magnetic charging compatibility
Embrace the future of charging with the built-in magnet module. Perfectly aligned with your device, this feature ensures seamless attachment to magnetic chargers, including MagSafe and most third-party wireless chargers. Experience faster, more efficient wireless charging without removing your case – convenience meets innovation in one stylish package.

Enhanced functionality with oversized tactile buttons
UAG understands that protection shouldn't hinder usability. That's why the Essential Armor case features ultra-responsive, oversized tactile buttons that deliver a crisp, clean click-feel. Enjoy improved functionality with easy access to all your phone's features, including precise cutouts for the S Pen and compatibility with lanyards for added convenience.

Military-grade drop protection (MIL-STD-810G 516.6)
When it comes to protecting your investment, UAG doesn't compromise. The Essential Armor case meets rigorous military drop-test standards, ensuring your S25 Ultra can withstand high-impact drops and the most demanding conditions. Raised screen and camera bezels provide additional protection against scratches and impacts, keeping your device pristine.
