The Mujjo Laptop Folio Sleeve pairs a full-grain leather exterior with a soft wool felt lining to protect your MacBook or slim laptop, with built-in storage for everyday accessories. Its slim design and integrated handle make it easy to carry on your commute, when travelling or between meetings.

- Integrated carry handle for travel and commuting
- Full-grain leather exterior with soft wool felt lining
- Wide U-shaped opening for easy access
- Dual storage compartments and an internal leather card pocket
- YKK zippers and reinforced construction for durability

Integrated carry handle for travel and commuting
The integrated handle offers a comfortable, secure grip without adding bulk. Carry your device through airports, on your commute or between meetings, even when your bag is full.

Full-grain leather exterior with soft wool felt lining
The full-grain leather exterior has a refined, professional look and develops character over time. The soft wool felt lining cushions your device and helps protect it from everyday bumps and surface scratches.

Wide U-shaped opening for easy access
The U-shaped zipper opening extends along two sides, making it easy to slide your device in and out at security checks, on trains or between meetings.

Dual storage compartments and an internal leather card pocket
Keep your laptop or tablet and everyday essentials together. The dual compartments provide space for items such as a charger, cables, headphones, a pen and documents, while a dedicated internal leather pocket holds cards or ID.

YKK zippers and reinforced construction for durability
Designed for daily use, the sleeve features smooth, reliable YKK zippers with custom gunmetal hardware. The dual-layer leather handle is reinforced with rivets and double stitching to help maintain its shape and strength over time.
