Seamless Protective Fit

Designed to integrate flawlessly with your MacBook Pro/Air 13", the Horizon sleeve by MW offers a snug fit, keeping your device immobile and protected from mishaps. Deliberately crafted to prevent your MacBook from sliding or shifting, the sleeve ensures that your device remains unscathed, regardless of your movements.

Eco-Friendly Materials

The Horizon sleeve is more than just a protective layer—it's a statement of environmental responsibility. The choice of materials reflects MW's commitment to sustainability, employing LRPu memory foam known for its excellent shock-absorbing qualities and a soft, scratch-preventative microfiber lining. Both elements are sourced from 100% recycled material, ensuring that your device protection doesn't come at the cost of the planet.

Shock Absorption

With its innovative layering and use of LRPu memory foam, the Horizon sleeve can protect your MacBook Pro/Air from the jolts and jostles of daily commuting. Engineered for resilience, the sleeve dissipates impact, offering peace of mind as you navigate your busy day.

Exquisite Design

Beauty meets function in the Horizon sleeve, where the Frosty Green Pearl hue lends an air of sophistication to your MacBook. It's designed to be a perfect companion for your device, fusing MW's dedicated French design ethos with the practical demands of a protective sleeve.

Sustainable Packaging

Embodying eco-conscious elegance, the Horizon sleeve comes encased in environmentally friendly and sturdy packaging. MW ensures that each sleeve is encased in fully recycled cardboard, conserving water and utilizing soy-based inks to minimize environmental impact without compromising quality.
