

Introducing Twelve South ParcSlope2 is a sleek and versatile stand designed for your MacBook and iPad. Built to maximize your comfort and productivity, this sturdy metal stand features a built-in cable management system for convenience and an angled design for optimal viewing and typing. The ParcSlope2 transforms both your MacBook and iPad experiences into something truly remarkable.

- Elevate your MacBook for better viewing.
- Provides a comfortable angle for sketching and typing on your iPad.
- Improves airflow around your MacBook, promoting cooling.
- Features a built-in cable management for grab-and-go use.
- Has a minimalist design that complements your MacBook and iPad.

Elevate your MacBook for better viewing

The ParcSlope2 raises your MacBook's screen to a more comfortable viewing height, aligning it with your eye level. This elevation not only contributes to a better posture but also combines with a full-size keyboard and mouse for a cosy desktop setup.

Provides a comfortable angle for sketching and typing on your iPad

Angled at a wrist-friendly 18-degree, this stand is perfect for sketching, creative work, or note-taking on your iPad. Whether you pair your iPad with a wireless keyboard to optimize your productivity or use it for artwork, ParcSlope2 supports your creativity all the way.

Improves airflow around your MacBook, promoting cooling

By lifting your MacBook, ParcSlope2 increases airflow around it, resulting in a cooler, quieter MacBook experience. This simple yet powerful feature can significantly extend your device's lifespan by preventing overheating.

Features a built-in cable management for grab-n-go use

Designed for those always on the move, the stand incorporates a built-in cable management system. This handy feature allows you to maintain a clean, organized workspace and makes grabbing your MacBook or iPad to hit the road a breeze.

Has a minimalist design that complements your MacBook and iPad

Crafted with precision curves and special ridges, the ParcSlope2 embraces a minimalist design aesthetic that beautifully complements your devices. The matte black finish adds a touch of elegance to your workspace, whether at home or office.
