Designed for bicycles

The Orbit X Velo tracks your bike in real time to assure you it's always just a tap away. Specifically tailored for bikes, its sleek design won't compromise your ride's aesthetic or performance.

It is easily mounted in a water bottle holder.

Avoid the hassle of complicated setups with Orbit's X Velo. This smart device fits effortlessly in your water bottle holder and can be easily installed using the included screws.

Compatible with Apple Find My Network

Orbit X Velo effortlessly blends with your Apple ecosystem. Leverage the capabilities of your devices further by tracking your bike on the same platform as your other Apple items like your iPhone, AirPods, and MacBook. Convenient and straightforward - this is the smart way of securing your bike.

Three years of battery life

Never fret about power failures during long rides. With an impressive battery life of up to three years, the Orbit X Velo ensures that your bike remains traceable for extensive periods without frequent recharging.

Vibration alerts and alarms

Boost your bike's security with silent alarm mode. Set a geofence and get notified through vibration alerts when your bike moves out of the pre-set range.
