

The Pipetto Classic Fit Sleeve is a slim, lightweight protective sleeve designed to fit your MacBook Pro 16-inch securely without adding unnecessary bulk. Made with 4 mm neoprene, a premium lycra exterior and an ultra-soft inner lining, it helps protect your MacBook from everyday scratches, dust, knocks and impacts while remaining easy to carry in a bag or briefcase.

- Slim, contoured fit for MacBook Pro 16-inch
- 4 mm neoprene for reliable impact protection
- Ultra-soft lining helps prevent scratches
- Protective dual zip closure for easy access
- Lightweight design for everyday carry

Slim, contoured fit for MacBook Pro 16-inch

The Classic Fit Sleeve is shaped to sit closely around your MacBook Pro 16-inch, giving it a snug and secure fit. Its slim profile makes it easy to slide into a backpack, work bag or briefcase while keeping your device protected on the move.

4 mm neoprene for reliable impact protection

Made from high-quality 4 mm neoprene with a premium lycra exterior, the sleeve provides dependable protection against everyday knocks and bumps. The material is designed to absorb shock and offer all-round protection without making the sleeve feel bulky.

Ultra-soft lining helps prevent scratches

Inside the sleeve, an ultra-soft faux-fur lining helps protect your MacBook against scratches, dust and dirt. This soft interior is ideal for keeping the surface of your device protected during daily use, travel and storage.

Protective dual zip closure for easy access

The soft-touch dual zip closure makes the sleeve easy to open from either side, whether you are left or right-handed. The zip construction also helps provide additional protection around the edges of your MacBook.

Lightweight design for everyday carry

At just 258 g, the sleeve is light enough for daily commuting, office use, study or travel. It gives your MacBook practical protection while maintaining a clean, minimal design that fits easily into your routine.
