Customizable Viewing Angles
Experience the ultimate in functionality with the Pipetto Rotating Folio case. Thanks to its unique design, you can effortlessly switch your iPad into portrait or landscape mode. The secure magnetic flap allows for smooth rotation and the ability to adjust the stand angle for optimal viewing, whether indulging in a late-night streaming session or conducting a hands-free video call. The case's versatility ensures that you're always just a flip away from your preferred viewing angle.

Advanced Shock Absorption
Protection meets perfection. Your iPad is safe within the confines of the Rotating Folio case, which has been rigorously drop-tested up to 1.1 meters (3.6 feet). It features an internal shock-absorbent TPU shell that cradles your device, guarding against the bumps and shocks of daily use. Additionally, the secure magnetic front cover adds another layer of defence, guaranteeing the utmost safety for your cherished device.

Hygienic Surface
Keeping your device clean and germ-free has never been easier. The Rotating Folio case is crafted from innovative anti-microbial materials, infused with a potent anti-microbial agent that maintains its effectiveness for the case's lifetime. These materials, certified to kill 99.9% of bacteria, ensure that common germs from fingers and surfaces are continually repelled. The wipe-clean finish adds convenience, allowing you to maintain your case's pristine appearance.

Lifetime Warranty
We at Pipetto are committed to the quality of our products, and the Rotating Folio case is no exception. We are so confident in our craftsmanship that we offer a lifetime warranty for this case. Any manufacturing or quality issues you might encounter will be promptly resolved, as we stand by our promise of a no-quibble warranty policy.
