Plaud NotePin Charging Kit - White

Power up your NotePin the smart, simple way. The Plaud NotePin Charging Kit combines a secure magnetic dock with a rugged USB-C braided cable to deliver fast, reliable charging at home, at work, or on the go—so you can get back to capturing important moments without delay.

- Secure magnetic dock with non-slip base
- Durable USB-C to USB-C braided cable
- Fast full recharge in about 2 hours
- Stable desktop charging for home or travel
- Works with NotePin and other USB-C devices

Secure magnetic dock with non-slip base
Snap your NotePin into place in an instant. The magnetic dock aligns and holds your recorder securely, while the anti-slip base keeps everything steady on your desk or nightstand for a clean, worry-free charging experience.

Durable USB-C to USB-C braided cable
Built to last, the tangle-resistant braided cable resists fraying and everyday wear. It's the reliable lead for your NotePin dock and doubles as a robust USB-C cable for your other compatible devices.

Fast full recharge in about 2 hours
Spend less time tethered and more time recording. Efficient power delivery brings your NotePin back to full in roughly two hours, so you can quickly return to meetings, lectures, and notes.

Stable desktop charging for home or travel
Keep your workspace tidy and your routine streamlined. Whether you leave the dock on your nightstand or pack it as a spare for trips, the compact, steady design makes charging effortless wherever you are.

Works with NotePin and other USB-C devices
Designed for the Plaud NotePin, the kit's USB-C to USB-C cable also works with phones, tablets, and other USB-C gear, giving you flexible charging options with one dependable accessory.
