Elevate Your iMac to Reduce Neck Strain
The Satechi stand is designed with a clear goal: to lift your iMac to an ideal viewing height. This ergonomic adjustment encourages better posture by raising your monitor screen, reducing neck strain and promoting comfort during extended working sessions.

Sturdy, Modern Design
Our stand boasts a sleek brushed aluminium finish and unibody construction, lending elegance and durability to your workspace. With a maximum loading weight of 50 lbs, it delivers a robust and stylish solution to elevate your display.

Convenient Access to Peripheral Devices
This is where the Stand Hub shines - it brings your most-used ports to the forefront. With built-in USB-C data port and USB 3.0 ports, micro/SD card slots and an audio jack, your peripheral devices are always within reach.

USB-C and USB 3.0 Ports
Experience high-speed data transfer with built-in USB-C and USB 3.0 ports. The USB-C data port provides up to 5 Gbps speeds, while the USB 3.0 ports offer the same. The micro/SD card slots also support UHS-I with speeds up to 104 Mbps.

Compatibility with all Apple iMac Models
Designed with versatility in mind, the Satechi USB-C Aluminum Monitor Stand Hub is built to support all Apple iMac models, courtesy of the included Type-A to Type-C adapter.
