Designed for Apple Users

Apple aesthetics inspires the Satechi X3 design. It has MacOS function keys and an ultra-compact, sleek design that complements your Apple devices. This keyboard will blend perfectly with your set-up, whether at home or on the move.

Extended Layout With Numeric Keypad

Keep your workspace organized and clutter-free with the extended layout that includes a numeric keypad, easing your data entry or number-crunching tasks.

Connects Up To Four Bluetooth Devices

Enjoy ultimate flexibility and convenience with advanced Bluetooth capability. You can switch between four devices with a simple touch, increasing your efficiency and productivity levels. Write an email, reply to a message, or jot down your grocery list almost simultaneously.

Adjustable Backlit Keys

The illuminated keys provide adjustable brightness levels. You can customize the keyboard's backlight to suit your preference and enhance visibility in any environment, from dim-lit rooms to well-lit spaces.

Long-lasting Rechargeable Battery

Never be interrupted during any task. Whether you're working late into the night or starting your day at dawn, the durable, rechargeable battery ensures the keyboard is always ready when you are.
