Ideal for Drying and Enjoyment

The mint, lemon balm, and Holy Basil included in this mix are not just perfect for brewing fresh tea. They are also ideal for drying to preserve your harvest for future use. Whether fresh or dried, these herbs will maintain their soothing qualities and delightful aroma to enhance your tea experience.

Simple Harvesting Process

With Click and Grow, you can start picking the first leaves of your tea herbs in about 40 to 50 days after planting. The process is simple, and the excess leaves are great for drying, ensuring a long-lasting supply. Keep a jar filled with your homegrown herbs to enjoy their calming effects at any time.

Perfectly Matches with Click & Grow Indoor Gardens

This refill pack is best paired with the new Click & Grow Smart Garden generation. Combining Smart Soil technology and premium seeds results in robust growth and a more flavorful tea. For those with an older generation garden, retain the plastic capsules for continued use.
