

Give your iPad a tough, kid-friendly shield with the Pipetto Activity Case. Made from lightweight, hazard-free foam, this case protects against everyday drops, bumps and messes while keeping your iPad easy to use, carry and clean. Perfect for home, school and travel, it combines smart design with serious protection.

- 2-in-1 stand for versatile viewing and interaction
- Smart carry handle for secure grip and easy transport
- Superior drop protection, tested from 1 metre onto concrete
- Easy-clean surface for kid-safe everyday use
- Built-in Apple Pencil storage for secure, convenient access

2-in-1 stand for versatile viewing and interaction

The integrated handle easily transforms into a sturdy stand, giving you flexible viewing angles for movies, video calls, gaming, drawing, typing or homework. Kids and adults can quickly flip the handle into stand mode to prop the iPad upright or tilt it to a more comfortable angle, keeping hands free and the screen stable on any flat surface.

Smart carry handle for secure grip and easy transport

Designed for small and big hands alike, the smart handle offers a confident grip when carrying the iPad from room to room, to school or on trips. Its ergonomic shape helps prevent drops while on the move, and because the handle doubles as a stand, there is no extra bulk or separate parts to lose.

Superior drop protection, tested from 1 metre onto concrete

The Pipetto Activity Case is built to safeguard your iPad in real-world conditions. Its impact-absorbing, hazard-free foam construction has been tested for drops from up to 1 metre onto concrete, helping protect against accidental falls from desks, tables or small hands. This robust drop protection makes it a reliable choice for busy families and classroom environments.

Easy-clean surface for kid-safe everyday use

The material is easy to wipe clean, so spills, fingerprints and everyday grime can be quickly removed, keeping the case looking fresh and hygienic whether at home, on the go or in shared spaces.

Built-in Apple Pencil storage for secure, convenient access

Keep your Apple Pencil close at hand with the integrated storage slot. The dedicated holder keeps the stylus secure when not in use, reducing the risk of it getting lost in bags or under furniture. Whether your child is drawing, writing or learning, the Pencil is always stored safely with the iPad and ready to use.
