Premium leather construction
Made from premium leather, SurfacePad provides durable protection for the front and back of your iPad mini without adding bulk. The soft lining inside the front cover gives the screen extra protection.

Stand for hands-free viewing, writing and typing
SurfacePad folds into a stable stand with multiple viewing angles for hands-free use. A wedge position supports writing and typing, making it easy to switch between watching a film and working on a document.

Slim, lightweight design
SurfacePad attaches to the back of your iPad mini, leaving its distinctive bevelled edges visible. The slim, lightweight design maintains the device's sleek profile.

Easy attachment and removal without residue
SurfacePad is easy to attach and remove without leaving sticky residue or marks, or damaging your iPad's surface.

Available in three colours
SurfacePad is available in Camel, Jet Black and Red. This version comes in Red.
