Rugged Design
The UAG Metropolis HS case features a robust design to safeguard your iPad from drops, bumps, and shocks. Its reinforced corners and sturdy frame absorb impact, making it perfect for daily use and adventurous excursions. Protect your device without compromising on style or functionality.

Military-Grade Protection
Meeting military drop-test standards (MIL-STD 810G 516.6), this case provides extraordinary protection for your iPad. Whether you're at home, the office, or exploring the outdoors, you can trust that the UAG Metropolis HS will shield your device from unexpected accidents and harsh conditions.

Adjustable and Detachable Stand
This versatile case includes an adjustable and detachable stand, allowing you to position your iPad at the ideal angle for typing, reading, or watching videos. Enjoy hands-free convenience and optimal viewing angles wherever you go with the UAG Metropolis HS case.

Lightweight and Slim
Despite its durable construction, the Metropolis HS case remains lightweight and slim. It ensures your iPad maintains its portability and convenience, easily fitting into your bag or backpack without adding unnecessary bulk. Carry your device with ease and confidence.

Easy Access to All Features
Designed for full functionality, this case provides easy access to all buttons, ports, and cameras. The precise cutouts mean you can use your iPad seamlessly without removing the case, ensuring that all features remain fully accessible and operational.
