Featherlight Construction
The UAG Plyo case offers military-grade protection without the bulk. Its ultra-lightweight design ensures that your iPad remains easy to carry around, fitting comfortably in your hand or bag. Despite its slim profile, it provides top-notch protection to safeguard your device from daily mishaps.

Armor Shell with Impact Resistance
Built with protection in mind, the Plyo case features a shock-absorbent armor shell and enhanced corner protection to withstand drops and bumps. Certified to meet military drop-test standards (MIL-STD 810G 516.6), this case ensures your iPad Mini is protected in even the most rugged environments.

Tactile Grip for Secure Handling
Never worry about accidental slips or drops again. The Plyo case is designed with a tactile grip to ensure you have a firm hold on your iPad at all times. The raised edges further protect the screen and camera, allowing you to use your device with confidence in different settings.

Apple Pencil Compatible
The UAG Plyo case is not only tough but also functional. It is compatible with the Apple Pencil, making it easy to keep your stylus safe while on the go, charged, and always ready for use.

Easy Access to Ports and Buttons
Designed with user convenience in mind, this case provides precise cutouts for all ports, buttons, and speakers, ensuring uninterrupted functionality. Whether you need to charge your device or adjust the volume, the Plyo keeps it simple and seamless.
