UAG Trooper Case for iPad 11" (A16, 2025) - Ice/Ash

Urban Armor Gear Trooper protects your tablet from everyday knocks and drops while making it easier to work, watch and carry. Its dual layer construction, built in screen protector and versatile kickstand combine dependable protection with practical everyday features.

- Dual layer protection
- Built in screen protector
- Versatile multi angle kickstand
- Discreet Apple Pencil storage
- Twice the military drop test standard

Dual layer protection
A rigid polycarbonate shell and shock absorbing TPU core work together to protect your tablet. Reinforced bumpers and corners add durability where it matters most, while integrated lanyard anchor points provide a convenient carrying option.

Built in screen protector
Help keep your screen free from scratches with an integrated screen protector. A raised surround adds protection around the screen edges, helping guard against everyday knocks and contact with surfaces.

Versatile multi angle kickstand
Set your tablet at an angle that suits the task. The sturdy built in kickstand supports landscape, portrait, typing and streaming positions, so you can work, read or watch comfortably without holding your device.

Discreet Apple Pencil storage
Keep your Apple Pencil secure and protected in a concealed compartment. The integrated holder keeps it close at hand without leaving it exposed during travel or daily use.

Twice the military drop test standard
The Trooper meets twice the military drop test standard, with testing that includes 52 drops from 1.8 metres. Its shock resistant construction helps protect your tablet against accidental drops at home, at work and on the move.
