

Intelino Support Tower Pack - White

Elevate your Intelino train set experience with the versatile Support Tower Pack. These innovative, stackable towers open up a world of creative possibilities, allowing you to build multi-level tracks, bridges, and exciting structures that will take your play to new heights.

- Versatile stackable design
- Multi-level track construction
- Bridge extension capabilities
- Compatible with Station & Tunnel Kit
- Duplo® building block compatibility

Versatile Stackable Design

The Intelino Support Towers feature a clever stackable design that allows for endless configuration options. Stack them high to create towering structures or use them side by side for broader support. This flexibility encourages imaginative play and engineering skills.

Multi-Level Track Construction

Take your Intelino train set to new dimensions by building multi-level track structures. The Support Towers provide a stable foundation for elevated tracks, allowing you to create complex layouts with over and underpasses, adding depth and excitement to your train adventures.

Bridge Extension Capabilities

Expand your train set's reach with impressive bridge extensions. The Support Towers offer the perfect solution for spanning gaps and creating dramatic elevated sections in your layout. Watch as your Intelino trains traverse these thrilling bridges, adding a new level of engagement to playtime.

Compatible with Station & Tunnel Kit

Combine the Support Towers with the Intelino Station & Tunnel Kit to create realistic stations and exciting tunnels. This compatibility enhances the play value of both sets, allowing for more immersive and detailed train layouts that spark creativity and storytelling.

Duplo® Building Block Compatibility

The Intelino Support Towers are designed to work seamlessly with Duplo® building blocks, offering even more possibilities for customization and creativity. This compatibility allows children to incorporate their existing block collections into their train set designs, fostering imaginative play and problem-solving skills.
