Experience versatility with the Pipetto iPad mini (7:th gen) Origami No1 Case. This exceptional case offers a unique and innovative approach to protecting your device while enhancing your iPad experience. It is designed with style and functionality in mind and combines an innovative folding design with unparalleled protection.

- Versatile 5-in-1 folding design for every viewing need
- Shock-absorbent TPU material for robust protection
- Compatible with Apple Pencil 2nd Gen sync and charge
- Auto sleep-wake functionality to extend your iPad's battery life

Versatile 5-in-1 Folding Design

This standout feature offers you not only one or two but five different stand positions, ensuring you find the perfect angle for any situation. The intricate origami-style folds allow you to switch seamlessly between viewing and typing modes, provide a stable base for bed or uneven surface usage, and even accommodate portrait positioning—a must-have for video calls and immersive reading sessions.

Shock Absorbent TPU Material

Pipetto has taken a no-compromises approach to protecting your iPad. The iPad mini (7:th gen) Origami No1 Original Case is crafted from high-quality, shock-absorbent TPU material that encases your device like a protective cocoon, shielding it from drops and impacts. Every edge and corner is covered, ensuring complete peace of mind.

Compatible with Apple Pencil 2nd Gen

The compatibility feature extends to your Apple Pencil 2nd Gen with seamless sync and charge capabilities. The case doesn't hinder your creativity or productivity, allowing you to attach your Apple Pencil easily and ensure it's charged and ready whenever inspiration strikes.

Auto Sleep-Wake Functionality

The case's intelligent auto sleep-wake functionality makes preserving battery life simple. Open the cover, and your iPad wakes up ready for use. Close it, and the device immediately sleeps, conserving energy and extending your battery life by up to 20%. This difference in daily usability is substantial, offering convenience and efficiency with every interaction.
